Stratford Library, 10am – 3pm

Join Brook Arts Hub and River Hope at Stratford Library to celebrate water and rivers with free, drop in activities for all ages.

10am – 3pm: River Hope community photography and video installation. Suitable for all

10.15am: Shakespeare for All: come along to read Twelfth Night aloud, or just to listen, in partnership with the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust
Suitable for 12+

For families: A River Comes to Life: help create a river installation

10am – 12pm: Lego – will you add a bridge over the river or a building on the bank?

12.30pm – 2.30pm: Riverscape creativity and crafts – imagine and create plants, fishes, water birds and animals to bring our riverscape to life.

12:30 – 2:30pm: Listening Corner with a selection of poems and stories about water from around the world.

Shakespeare's New Place, 11am – 4pm

Join us for free (for everyone!) at New Place Gardens for garden adventures, activities, talks and more! Bring a picnic and relax beneath the mulberry trees, smell the roses and discover how Shakespeare's former family home is being brought to life for and by Stratford's people today. No need to book, all ages welcome!

Royal Shakespeare Theatre, 11am – 3pm

Join us in the Royal Shakespeare Company's Welcome Space (Paccar Room, floor 2 of the Royal Shakespeare Theatre), for a drop-in workshop with A Line Art. Using paper craft folding techniques, you will create and decorate a mini folded version of the theatre, including Shakespeare himself! Fun and free activity for all the family. Children must be accompanied by parents/carers.

Escape Arts & Heritage Centre, 1:30– 4:30pm

Free fun activities for all the family. Drop-in and make junk boats from Lego, paper, card, empty plastic containers and other rubbish or household junk. Will it float and carry your cargo or will it sink to the murky depths? Share your memories and stories of our local rivers and watercourses for our heritage project: The People's Archive of Stratford upon Avon. Come along and tell us your own tales of the riverbank or canal exploits. We'll be serving fresh coffee, tea or squash and an assortment of delicious treats (small charge for refreshments).

Rother Street Arts House, 10am – 2pm

We have fantastic FREE 'give-it-a-go' sessions for all ages, offered by a brilliant range of local groups. Take part, learn something new and above all have FUN! This Fun Palace is for us all. It's about Stratford coming together, sharing our skills and learning something new. It's about the things we enjoy doing together and making our community shine.
